5 I can understand two texts and use vocabulary about online activities.

GOING ONLINE

1 In pairs. Discuss the questions.

- How much time do you spend online each day?
- What kinds of website do you visit?
- What social networking sites or apps do you use?
- Do you ever use email?

2 1.38 Read and listen to the two texts. Which one is a poster? Which one is part of a social networking site?

3 Which text (A or B) gives the following rules or advice? 1.39

- Be careful with messages from strangers.
- Don't try to sell anything on the site.
- Don't go and meet an online friend on your own.
- It's very important to make sure nobody knows your password.
- Never upload anything that could really offend people.
- Don't download songs from the Internet.
- Never tell people your name or address.
- It's important to report unkind messages.

4 VOCABULARY 1.39 Find these words in the texts and check their meaning. Are any the same in your language? Listen and repeat.

access (v) attachment (n) block (v) cyberbully (v) message (n) password (n) post (v) share (v)
unfriend (v) upload (v)

5 In pairs. Ask and answer the questions.

- Can you access the Internet at school?
- How does your school deal with cyberbullying?
- How do you send messages to your friends?
- How often do you share photos online?
- What's the last photo you uploaded?
- Why do people sometimes block messages from certain people? Or unfriend certain people?
- What sort of things do people often send as email attachments?
- Do you ever forget your passwords?
- Do you mind if people post photos of you online?

6 VOCABULARY BOOSTER Now practise going online vocabulary on page 111.

Chat 2 Friends

Hi, and welcome to our chat site. We really hope you enjoy your time here and make some great new friends. Just remember to follow a few basic rules.

Be friendly. You mustn't use C2F to cyberbully or intimidate anybody. And if somebody tries to cyberbully you, just unfriend them, or ask us to block them for you.

Be nice. That means you mustn't post anything that contains hate speech or violence. If you see any messages like that, you must report them to us right away.

Be sensible. No advertising, OK? You're here to make friends, not to try and sell stuff.

Be respectful. You mustn't upload any photos of people without their permission.

Be safe. Don't share your personal details. And if you arrange to visit an online friend, don't go alone.
